HOSTILITIES NOW ENDED

Our Generals to Hold Their Present Positions Until Commissioners Settle the Terms of Evacuation.

SHEPPARD KNAPP & CO., At the Front, with General Wilson's Column, Five Miles Beyond Coamo, Porto Rico, Aug. 12 (delayed in transmission). - General Wilson moved one Lancaster battery out to the THE WALDORF SHOE front this afternoon for the purpose of shelling the Spanish position on the crest of the mountain, at the head of the pass through which the road winds. The enemy occupied a position of great natural strength, protected by seven lines of intrenchments and a battery of two how-

> The Spaniards were eager for the fray, and earlier in the day had fired upon Colonel Biddle, of the Engineer Corps, who, with a platoon of Troop C, of New York, was reconnoltring on their right

> As our battery rounded a curve in the road, two thousand yards away, the enemy opened an artillery and infantry fire. The guns advanced at a gallop in the face of a terrific fire, were unlimbered and were soon hurling common shell and shrapnel at the enemy at a lively rate, striking the emplacements, batteries and intrenchments with the rhythmic regularity of a triphammer. The enemy soon abandoned one gun, but continued to serve the other at intervals for over an hour.

> Spanish Shots Hit the Mark. They had our range, and their shrapnel burst repeatedly over our men. The fragments of one shell killed Corporal Swanson, of Company L, and seriously woundng Corporal Yanke and Privates Bunce and eld, distinguished himself by aiding Dr. Voodbury.

Here Captain Lee and Private Sizer, of ompany F, were wounded by Mauser bullets. In about two hours the enemy abanoned the other gun and the men fled from he intrenchments.

One gun was now ordered to advance to position a quarter of a mile further on thad just reached the new position when expanish infantry reinforcements filed into the trenches and fired down a deadly fire pon our men, compelling the battery to effect at a gallop. Then both the enemy's owlizers reopened, and shrappel screamed and Mausers sang. Another gun galloped from the rear, but our ammunition was knusted.

Lieutenant Haines was shot in the body by a Manser just before his gun retired, the bail following a rih.
Colonel Bliss, of General Wilson's staff, went forward to the enemy's line with a flag of truce and explained that peace negotiations were almost concluded and that their position was untenable, and demanded their surrender. The Spanish have no communication with the outside world, and the commander asked until to-morrow morning in order that he might communicate with Governor-General Maclas at San Juan.
